

INTERPRETING SERVICE ITA-ENG FOR THE WEBINAR
“ European Actions to fight Cancer: a new EU approach to prevention, treatment and care”

26/04/2021

Dear Participant,

here you can find some important information about the simultaneous translation service during the webinar “European Actions to fight Cancer: a new EU approach to prevention, treatment and care” to be held on 26th April 2021.

The webinar will be in English, but some interactions could be in Italian. The simultaneous Italian-English translation service will be at your disposal, directly from your smartphone.

To take advantage, since now download the free APP on your Android or iOS smartphone, by searching for "VEASYT Conference" or by typing the following links:

- App Store per iOS: http://bit.ly/iOS_VEASYTConference
- Play Store per Android: <http://bit.ly/androidVEASYTconference>.

The day of the conference we will give you the specific code to insert in the APP in order to listen the simultaneous translation from Italian to English.

For a better comfort, we also recommend you to use earphones or headphones, and check the battery charging status of your smartphone.

The remote translation service is guaranteed by VEASYT srl, a spin-off of the Ca' Foscari University of Venice, which develops digital solutions to break down communication barriers. For information <http://bit.ly/presentazioneVConference> | info@veasyt.com | 041 2345716.
